Bus trip to Mauthausen Memorial (Timetable Bus)

The Mauthausen concentration camp, together with the Gusen concentration camp and over 40 satellite camps, was the central site of political, social and racial persecution by the National Socialist regime on Austrian soil from 1938 - 1945.

Today, the Mauthausen concentration camp memorial is an international place of remembrance and historical-political education. In addition to the preserved historical buildings and facilities, the Wiener Graben quarry with the "Death Staircase" and the international memorial park, two permanent exhibitions and the memorial room "Room of Names" can be visited. The permanent exhibition in the former infirmary offers a true-to-source and scientifically based presentation of the National Socialist concentration camp system, as well as the Mauthausen concentration camp and its subcamps.

Address: Erinnerungsstraße, 4310 Mauthausen

Visit the paneuropean picnic memorial & remembrance park by E-Bike (8,6km – approx.. 45 mins)

On 19 August 1989, the Pan-European Union organized a peace demonstration, the Pan-European Picnic, at the border north of Sopron together with the Hungarian Democratic Forum. During this event, under the patronage of the emperor's son Otto von Habsburg - the latter under the protective hand of the Hungarian Chief Reformist and Minister of State Imre Pozsgay - a gate in the border fence was to be symbolically opened for one hour. In the days that followed, the border guards were tightened, but three weeks later, on 11 September, they were opened to GDR citizens without restriction. In addition to a signposted border trail with a watchtower, a number of artworks in various forms of expression commemorate the event, including a fountain house, the freedom bell and the monument of the open doors.

Visit the Csillag Fortress and the Exhibition there

Opposite the eastern bastion of the Old Castle is the Star Fortress, whose predecessor is the Turkish St. Peter's Palisade. The construction began in 1568. The task of the bridgehead forts was to protect the central fort from surprise attacks, to block the river traffic, to protect the existing or to build a ship bridge if necessary and to serve as a base for horse races against the attackers. After the Turkish battles, the fortification system lost its main function and was therefore neglected

Visit Fort Monostor and the Danube Bastion

It is the largest fortress in Central Europe from the modern era and was built from 1850 to 1871. Today it also houses the unique Hungarian Bread Museum. More information: www.iranykomarom.hu/en/fort-monostor-en

Visit the Basilica of Esztergom

Between Heaven and Earth - an exclusive adventure tour of the Basilica of Esztergom

The renovation of the largest religious building in Hungary can now be seen from a truly special perspective. During the adventure tour, we will expertly guide you behind the scenes of the unique architectural work. You will start off with an exhilarating ride in an exterior freight elevator on the side of the basilica up to the unusual scaffolding of the dome in protective helmets. Walking along the construction site, you can admire the tinsmith work of the dome's copper roofing, and learn about the gold-plated stuccoes decorated by hand and the meticulous work of the restorers. At the end of the tour, close to a height of 100 m breathtaking panorama of the Danube awaits you. Entering inside the Basilica, learn about the lesser known facts of this majestic building, and visit the only surviving Hungarian renaissance building, the Bakócz chapel. Finishing off your architecture tour visit the interactive exhibition in the Panorama room and find out further interesting details about the renovation works, as well as the 177 years-old time-capsule found in the body of the cross on top of the Basilica. Approx. duration of the tour: 1,5 hours

Address: H-2500 Esztergom Szent István tér 1

Dishes from the Cardinal's Table – Have a coffee & cake at the Panorama Café of the Basilica

After the architecture adventure let us bring you on a gastronomic journey through the kitchens and dining rooms of the archbishops of Esztergom in the 19th century inspired by our newly published unique recipe book, "Dishes from the Cardinal's Table". Enjoy the flavours of our past with breath-taking panoramic views of the Danube from a height of almost 60 metres in the Panorama Café of the Basilica.
